

Design Created by Pat Caputo

VALENTINE CARD

Here is a Valentine card using different styles of quilling. The hearts are made by alternately looping the quilling strip and then outlining the heart with crimped paper. The flowers are punch flowers which combine well with quilling. The heart cut out on the edges is backed by wide strips of quilling paper. A heart border punch was used on the card's edges.

Courtesy of Whimsiquills